RE: MUR 4378

Dear Ms. Lee:

The Federal Election Commission has the statutory duty of enforcing the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. The Commission has issued the enclosed subpoena which requires you to appear and give sworn testimony on October 29, 1997 at 999 E Street, NW, Washington, DC, beginning at 9:30 am, in connection with an investigation which it is conducting. The Commission does not consider you a respondent in this matter, but rather a witness only.

You may consult with an attorney and have an attorney present with you at the deposition. If you intend to be so represented, please advise us of the name and address of your attorney prior to the date of the deposition.

Because this information is being sought as part of an investigation being conducted by the Commission, the confidentiality provision of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12)(A) applies. That section prohibits making public any investigation conducted by the Commission without the express written consent of the person with respect to whom the investigation is made. You are advised that no such consent has been given in this case.
